DETAILED ACTION

This application has been re-assigned to Examiner Nathan M. Nutter in Art Unit 1711. All inquiries regarding this application should be directed to Examiner Nutter at telephone number 571-272-1076.

In view of the Appeal Brief filed on 17 October 2005, PROSECUTION IS HEREBY REOPENED.

New grounds of rejection are set forth below.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see Appeal Brief, filed 17 October 2005, with respect to the rejection of claims 1-9 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Heimerl et al (US 5,011,492) in view of Nielsen et al (US 6,458,886) and Hosokawa et al (US 2003/0102081), have been fully considered and are persuasive. The reference to Heimerl et al fails to disclose any particular molecular weight for the copolymer employed and provides no teaching or suggestion to use any form of filler material, regardless of size. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn.

However, upon further consideration, new grounds of rejection are made as follows.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-8 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Husemann et al (US 6,720,399) or Husemann et al (US 6,958,186).

Both of the patents to Husemann et al teach the manufacture of a UV-transparent pressure sensitive adhesive comprising: a copolymer of from 70 to 100% by weight of acrylic esters and/or methacrylic esters and up to 30% by weight of olefinically unsaturated monomers which contain at least one UV-crosslinking functional group per monomer, and a silicate filler, based on the weight of the UV transparent pressure sensitive adhesive.

While neither Husemann et al reference specifies the quantity of the silica filler, one of ordinary skill in the art would have found it prima facie obvious to determine a workable or even optimum range of silica for a UV-transparent PSA. "(D)iscovery of an optimum value of a result effective variable in a known process is ordinarily within the skill of the art." In re Boesch, 617 F.2d 272, 276, 205 USPQ 215, 219 (CCPA 1980); "(W)here the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the art, it is not inventive to discover the optimum or workable ranges by routine experimentation. In re Aller, 220 F.2d 454, 456, 105 USPQ 233, 235 (CCPA 1955).

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir.

Art Unit: 1711

1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-9 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-8 of copending Application No. 10/745,305. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the process is recited in claim 7 of the application. All other parameters would have been within the skill of an artisan.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
